

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR LEP BOARD MEMBERS

You are a Board Member of the Liverpool City Region Local Enterprise Partnership and hence you shall have regard to the following principles – selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership in your conduct at all times.

Accordingly, when acting in your capacity as a Board Member of Liverpool City Region Local Enterprise Partnership:

- You must act in a manner consistent with LCR LEP's equality and diversity strategy and treat your fellow Board Members, members of staff and others you come into contact with when working in their role with respect and courtesy at all times.
- You must act solely in the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person or act to gain financial or other material benefits for yourself, your family, a friend or close associate.
- You must not place yourself under a financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might be reasonably regarded to influence you in the performance of your official duties.
- When carrying out your LEP duties you must make all choices, such as making appointments, awarding contracts or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits, based on evidence.
- You are accountable for your decisions and you must co-operate fully with whatever scrutiny is appropriate to your position. You must be as open as possible about both your decisions and actions and the decisions and actions of LCR LEP. In addition, you should be prepared to give reasons for those decisions and actions.
- You must declare any private interests, both pecuniary and non-pecuniary, including membership of any Trade Union, political party or local authority that relates to your LEP duties. Furthermore, you must take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest. This includes registering and declaring interests in a manner conforming with the procedures set out in the section 'Registering and declaring pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests'.
- You must, when using or authorising the use by others of the resources of LCR LEP, ensure that such resources are not used improperly for political or personal purposes (including party political purposes).
- You must promote and support high standards of conduct when serving in your LEP post, in particular as characterised by the above requirements, by leadership and example.
- It is important that the Board has full and frank discussions in order to take decisions collectively. To do so, there must be trust between members with a shared corporate responsibility for decisions. Board Members are expected to keep confidential any matter which, by reason of its nature, the Chair or Members of the Board are satisfied should be dealt with on a confidential basis.

- Board Members should not make statements to the press or media or at any public meeting relating to the proceedings of the Board without first having obtained the approval of the Chair. It is unethical for Board Members to publicly criticise or reveal the views of other Members which have been expressed at meetings of the Board.

Registering and declaring pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests

You must, within 28 days of taking office as a Board Member or co-opted, notify your LEP Managing Director and Accountable Body's S151/S73 Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interestⁱ, where the pecuniary interest is yours, your spouse's or civil partner's, or is the pecuniary interest of somebody with whom you are living with as a spouse, or as if you were civil partners.

In addition, you must, within 28 days of taking office, notify your LEP Managing Director and Accountable Body's S151/ S73 Officer of any non-pecuniary interestⁱⁱ which LCR LEP has decided should be included in the register or which you consider should be included if you are to fulfil your duty to act in conformity with the Seven Principles of Public Life. These non-pecuniary interests will necessarily include your membership of any Trade Union.

Board members should review their individual register of interest before each board meeting and decision making committee meeting. They must declare any relevant interest(s) at the start of the meeting. If an interest has not been entered onto LCR LEP's register, then the member must disclose the interest at any meeting of LCR LEP at which they are present, where they have a disclosable interest in any matter being considered and where the matter is not a 'sensitive interest'ⁱⁱⁱ.

Following any disclosure of an interest not on the LEP register or the subject of pending notification, you must notify the LEP Managing Director and S151/S73 Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure.

Unless dispensation has been granted, you may not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to any matter in which you have a pecuniary interest. Additionally, you must observe the restrictions LCR LEP places on your involvement in matters where you have a pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest as defined by LCR LEP.

ⁱ For the purposes of this guidance, we are using the definition of a pecuniary interest as set out in the Localism Act 2011 and The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012.

ⁱⁱ A Non-Pecuniary interest is any interest which is not listed in the Schedule to The Relevant Authorities \(Disclosable Pecuniary Interests\) Regulations 2012 \(No.1464\).

ⁱⁱⁱ A 'sensitive interest' is described in the Localism Act 2011 as a member or co-opted member of an authority having an interest, and the nature of the interest being such that the member or co-opted member, and the authority's monitoring officer, consider that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to the member or co-opted member, or a person connected with the member or co-opted member, being subject to violence or intimidation.
